Space to Create. Space to Think. Space to Redefine.

In your busy roles as teaching and careers professionals, finding space and time to reflect and consider new ideas and initiatives can be challenging. Based in our Cardiff Campus – home to our creative industries courses – our annual conference will equip you with the most current information, developments and techniques. From online university comparison tools, to the essential skills required for careers of the future, our innovative Schools and Colleges Liaison Team, supported by high profile industry professionals, will deliver a diverse range of thought-provoking sessions and workshops.

Running over two days, delegates are encouraged to attend as much or as little as their timetables allow, using our flexible online booking system.

For delegates who require an overnight stay, accommodation and breakfast is available at the nearby Novotel Cardiff for just £80.
