What to Expect at ICC Wales

As a graduate, you will:

- Collect your academic dress (cap, gown and hood) and ceremony tickets
- Have the opportunity to take official photographs
- Attend your graduation ceremony in the auditorium

You can also enjoy the Grad Fest area, where you can celebrate with fellow graduates, guests, and University staff. This area includes:

- Refreshment stalls
- Alumni and University information stands
- A large screen livestream of the ceremony for guests who prefer not to enter the auditorium or who do not have a ticket

Graduation Etiquette

Graduation is a highlight of the academic year, and we aim to ensure every graduand has a memorable and respectful experience.

We kindly ask you and your guests to observe the following:

- Graduands will be guided back to a seat after crossing the stage (this may differ from your original seat—please leave belongings with your guests)
- Graduands must remain seated throughout the ceremony
- Guests must remain seated to minimise disruption to others
- Please remain respectful and quiet during the ceremony, and applaud each graduate as they cross the stage

Security Information

Enhanced security measures will be in place to ensure the safety and enjoyment of everyone attending.

Please note:

- Large bags may be subject to search (bags larger than a small clutch are discouraged)
- Suitcases are not permitted within the venue and may be refused
- Graduates and guests must have their tickets available for admission to the auditorium

Please allow extra time on arrival to accommodate security checks.
