

International Student Support Fund 2026/27

Review Application form and guidance notes

Please read the following guidance notes carefully before proceeding with the application.

Guidance Notes

What circumstances can I review?

Have there been any changes in your income/expenditure since you completed your application or has there been a change in your circumstances (e.g., changes in employment hours, housing, debts etc)? The Panel can then review the case in light of this new information.

How long does it take to review an application?

It can take up to 20 working days to process a review fully. Please note that if there is evidence/information missing it can take a further 20 working days from the date for this information is received to process your application.

Is a review the best course of action?

If you are unsure whether or not you should submit a review please arrange an appointment with Money and Support Adviser to discuss your options. You can book an appointment online:

<https://studentmoney.southwales.ac.uk/contact-us/>.

What happens after I submit my application?

- If we require further evidence or information in support of your application, we will usually communicate with you via your University email address. It is your responsibility to provide the required information.
- The Student Support Fund Panel will consider your individual circumstances and make a decision on your award.
- Awards made from the Fund vary and should not be considered to be an automatic entitlement.
- The International Student Support Fund is finite and subject to review, as such it is not guaranteed to be available every academic year or during the whole of an academic year.

Who do I contact for support?

If you require support with your application, or have any queries regarding your eligibility, please contact the Student Money Advice Team.

Email: studentsupportfund@southwales.ac.uk

You can also make an appointment with a Student Money Adviser who will be happy to assist you.

You can do so online <https://studentmoney.southwales.ac.uk/contact-us/>.
